

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

I write to thank you for your service to Christ and His Bride, the Church. Moreover, I ask you to follow the guidelines below, so that we may continue to foster reverence for Jesus in the Eucharist while simultaneously protecting ourselves from the reality of germs. I would like those distributing Holy Communion to do so with clean hands (and hopefully, clean hearts!)

The procedure is as follows:

- 1) Two ministers of Holy Communion are needed at this time. At the appropriate time, please assemble a line at the foot of the sanctuary in front of the indented steps in the main aisle (as you've been doing all along).
- 2) As soon as you have everyone, proceed to the sacristy (if you're missing someone, hopefully this will be noticed and a volunteer will come to the rescue).
- 3) When in the sacristy, please use the hand disinfectant provided.
- 4) Line up at the doorway of the sacristy and wait until Father has received both the Body and the Blood of Our Lord, and puts the chalice back on the altar.
- 5) Come into the sanctuary, and proceed to the back of the altar for you to receive Our Lord.
- 6) Assist Father in the distribution of Holy Communion.
- 7) Return your ciborium to the altar and return to your pew.
- 8) Should anyone come up to receive a blessing simply bless them, "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen" without raising your hand as a Priest would do.

As you can see, the main difference is entering the sacristy as soon as everyone is assembled at the foot of the sanctuary. Though no one is forced to use the hand sanitizer, it's obviously a good idea and helps us to focus more intently on Jesus and less on the possibility of germs. I think this procedure will allow us to balance piety and purity in a way that gives the congregation piece of mind while not becoming too great a distraction.

Please get a substitute if you cannot assist at the designated Mass; this is your responsibility. Please check in before Mass so the celebrant knows you are present.

Please note that we need you to volunteer for Masses on holydays. Please sign up in the sacristy when the announcement is made.

Thank you for assisting me and for bringing Jesus to His people!
