FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

As I mentioned in my last bulletin column, I wish to share more about my experience of the Holy Face of Jesus. We are blessed to have a presentation of the Holy Face of Jesus here at our church on Saturday evening, September 24th. There are two main relics of the Holy Face of Jesus. The one is in Rome. This is the one that will be presented at our parish and for which St. Therese the Little Flower had such great devotion. It is a special relic reserved in St. Peter's Basilica and shown to the public once a year. The image presented at our church during the talk is a copy of that relic.

There is a second tradition of the Holy Face of Jesus and it is with this tradition that I have more experience. A small city on the eastern side of Italy called Manoppello is said to have preserved this holy relic for the last number of centuries. It is a remarkable image, not because it is beautiful but rather because it is so moving. It depicts the suffering face of Jesus. His features are unremarkable, even sad. The cloth is made from the most costly fabric of the ancient world, mussel silk. This fabric is so thin that it cannot absorb dyes. Yet the image of Jesus is clearly seen upon the image. I have visited this image twice. One can stand within one foot of the image, the fabric being protected by a thin sheet of glass. When one looks straight at the fabric, the image of Jesus' face is clearly visible. But if one stands just a few feet to the side, the fabric remains but the image disappears. When sunlight passes through the fabric the image disappears. Scientists have studied the image and no pigment is seen.

This scientific phenomenon is remarkable. But for me the most powerful aspect of the image is to gaze upon the Lord's face and particularly upon his eyes. His countenance seems mournful, yet not despairing. He appears reflective and with love. As I gazed into his eyes, I sensed a gaze of love from Jesus back to me, far more intense, inviting and deep than I could ever give in return. Art always evokes a response in the human soul, but in this image of Jesus the response seemed to exceed the capacity of art, the presence of God seemed self-evident.

This coming weekend at each of the Masses, I will update everyone briefly on the campaign. We will also have two light receptions, Oct 4th & Oct 11th, for those who have further questions. Brochures describing the details of the campaign remain in the back of the church. Thank you again for all who have supported the campaign. ~ Blessings to each of you this coming week.

May St. John the Baptist pray for us.

Fr. Thelen

SISTER BARBARA

The Parish of St. John the Baptist of Marshfield, Wisconsin offers our best wishes, cherished anecdotes and heartfelt prayers on the occasion of the retirement and relocation of Sister Barbara Hollweck, SSM, and Sister Rita Adlkofer, SSM.

Dear Sister Barbara & Sister Rita,
I feel so blessed that during my brief time as pastor I got to meet both of you. I will treasure your wisdom and the deep care that you shared with all of us!

Father Dan Thelen

SISTER RITA

I got to know Sister Barbara when she volunteered in the SICU waiting room at the hospital. I know her compassion & kindness was appreciated by family members during the stressful time of having a loved one as a patient. She always brought a smile to my face when she walked into the unit. When I was having a bad day, she made me feel better. I will miss our talks, her sense of humor & sweet smile. She is truly a special woman. Linda Strenger

Dear Sister Rita and Sister Barbara, Thank you for your "yes" to God and for all you've done to serve St. John's parishioners through the years. As you move to your retirement center in Oshkosh, know that both of you will be in my thoughts and prayers. Sister Rita, I want to express my heartfelt thanks. It was so enjoyable working with you. Take care, and know that you will be greatly missed! Anne Iwanski

Sister Rita and Sister Barbara ~ Thank both of you for being important people who are God-influences in my life. When I first came to St. Joseph's Hospital, I was unsure of this new environment and how I would fit in as a chaplain. The whole place seemed huge, but the mentoring and care you showed me helped me to understand this call of God for my life.

You brought His quiet, caring presence through your ministry and helped me to know the love that God gifts His people on a daily basis and especially during times of crisis in their lives. Also, to see you at St. John's and to know of your love and service to God has enriched my life and relationships with God and His people. Thank you and may God keep you in your new endeavors. You will both be remembered in my prayers until we meet again. Rita Austin

Thank you, Sr. Rita, for befriending me years ago when I was hospitalized. I am grateful for the many times you came to our home and brought Communion, Holy Water, and the weekly bulletins. God Bless and Keep You in His Hands!!! Fran Schlagenhaft, and Dave.

The Church has long taught that man is a creature composed of both body and soul. Arguably no one lived and taught that more convincingly than Sister Barbara and Sister Rita. From their love of God came their compassion for the sick and the suffering. From their belief in Christ's Resurrection came their unshakeable hope that encouraged countless souls as they prepared to meet God. It makes me sad to think of Marshfield without Sister Rita and Sister Barbara. But their love, like God's love, will continue to accompany the sick and give hope to the dying. After all is said and done, these wonderful Sisters taught us a timeless truth, one that fascinated the great Saint Francis of Assisi: "For it is in dying that we are born to eternal life."

Godspeed, Sister Barbara and Sister Rita! We love you, we will always miss you, and we will thank God for you until we meet again!

Father Sam Martin

Sr Barbara & Sr Rita,

A warm filled note of gratitude for the many blessings and graces you shared with the Marshfield community through your service to others and enhancing the awareness of the beauty of nature through flowers. Your stewardship of the land and flowers yielded a reminder to all who passed by, encouraging others to grow in gentleness, patience, courage and faith; akin to the growing plant that with proper nurturing produces color, fragrance, and joy for all to share. You planted seeds in the hearts of many, young & old, nurtured those in need, always providing the proper nutrients through attentive listening, prayer, and distribution of the Holy Eucharist through your outreach ministry. Thank you for openly sharing your faith and goodness with others during times of sunshine and through clouds of darkness.

May you continue to know the great joy that comes from sharing of self and nature. God's blessings to you as you journey to cultivate and grow in faith in a different community.

Laurel & James Kniech

Dear Sister Rita and Sister Barbara ~

Thank you very much for the devotion you have given as Sisters of the Sorrowful Mother serving in the Marshfield area. Your care for the physical and spiritual needs of people has been remarkable. You will be missed but our thoughts and prayers go with you. May the Lord continue to bless and give you peace for the tremendous dedication and work you have done in His name. Monsignor Charles Stoetzel

The Sisters have provided us with a beautiful example of service and dedication to our parish family. Their presence at daily Mass, bringing the Eucharist to those unable to attend Mass, serving the poorest of the poor and providing spiritual direction are ways we have been blessed by them! Pam & Lee Alt

Sister Rita and Sister Barbara! We have enjoyed your beautiful flowers. We drive by your home every day; they are the highlight of St. Joseph Avenue! You will be missed at St. John. God bless you.
Tom and Susan Youngwith

Sr. Rita, you have selflessly served the Shut-ins of St. John's Parish for a long time. I am one of them and so was my dearest late husband. I want to thank you for bringing us Communion, always cheerful and lifting us up with your beautiful words of prayer. You will be missed by all of us.

Helga Krainz

From the days of the St. Joseph School of Nursing program and the beginnings of the House of Dove through all of your years of service in the Marshfield community, we have been blessed by the gifts of your contagious smiles, committed care of the sick and less fortunate, and humble, grace-filled presence. You have left your footprint deep within our hearts - an inspiration to many. May God continue to bless you and shower you with many graces in your new beginnings.

The whole life of our Lord has been summarized thus:

Bishop Fulton Sheen

He went about doing good. No soul ever saves itself in isolation.

~When I think of Sister Barbara, thoughts of a kind smile, a quiet voice and a gentle spirit immediately come to mind. I have deep respect for her tireless work ethic to support the less fortunate. but her greatest gift is the thousands of prayers she has offered for us over the years.

~ My first memory of Sister Rita goes back to the late 70's. Her orientation for us to critical care efficiently and effectively taught us about all the patient information we could gather with proper use of our stethoscopes. Her dedication to the hospital and the poor and homebound of the parish was unwavering. Providing fresh produce from her garden was her mission. Judy Gadke

Sr. Rita, God blessed our St. John's families when you came to serve our elderly and sick. I was so blessed to have worked with you. ~ Sr. Barbara, you ministered to so many at St. Joseph's Hospital. I will always remember the beautiful flowers surrounding your home. Enjoy your well-deserved retirement! Lucy Lang

Dear Sisters— It has been a blessing to have had you serving our parish for so many years. Now it's time to let others serve you. Bob and Monica Trussoni

Dear Sister Rita ~

You will be missed. I am so thankful for all that you do, especially for what you did for my Mom and Dad. I will never forget. You are always in my prayers. God bless you and Sister Barbara. Susan Jacobson

I first met Sister Barbara in the 1980's when I believe she was still teaching students at Saint Joseph's Hospital. What a blessing for those young students to learn from someone with not only expertise but also deep, abiding faith. Then in more recent years Sister Barbara volunteered in the ICU waiting room at the hospital, helping patients' families. So many families received kindness and caring from Sister Barbara during times in their lives, with loved ones sick, they needed that care more than ever. I am sure Sister Barbara will never be forgotten by these many dear souls.

In more recent years, I have learned of Sister Rita's help for people in need, ministering in many different ways. Having such an impact for good but doing so quietly and asking for nothing in return, always kind and smiling-that is living out your faith. Once again, the blessings received will never be forgotten.

Our parish and community have been blessed for many decades with Sister Barbara and Sister Rita among us. God's love is truly made alive in all of the kindnesses they have shown. Even though they will be so missed, I think love like this lives on and on. Godspeed, Sister Barbara and Sister Rita. You are in our prayers.

Hope Kuehner

Sister Rita and Sister Barbara, You both worked with quiet confidence, dedication and tireless love for the sick and elderly of our parish. Thank you for your beautiful example of doing small things with great love! You will be missed by many! God bless you as you move to Oshkosh. Take our appreciation, love and prayers with you! Patti Willkom

I first met Sr. Rita when I was head nurse on 4 North. Sister taught a Physical Assessment class. It was a good review of our assessment skills. Sister was very patient with all of us, and I continued to have contact with Sister caring for our oncology patients. ~ I also worked with Sr. Barbara as a patient advocate. ~ It was a pleasure working with the sisters. I wish the very best to you both as you relocate.

Karen Lappe.

The Eucharist had so powerful an attraction for the Blessed Virgin that she could not live away from it. She lived in it and by it. She passed her days and her nights at the feet of her divine Son....

Her love for her hidden God shone in her countenance and communicated its ardour to all about her. ~St. Peter Julian Eymard
