Mass Intentions - the stipends for Masses has remained the same for over 30 years throughout the Dioceses of Wisconsin. Recently when the Bishops of the state of Wisconsin gathered, they decreed that the stipends should be adjusted. Mass stipends will now be $20 (formerly $10). The new fee will take place immediately. All Masses currently scheduled are exempt from this increase. As always, Mass stipends are paid to the parish and not the priest directly. Thank you!

Please note the following guidelines on scheduling a Mass:

- ◇ Only one scheduled intention can be booked per Mass. This one scheduled intention can have no more than three names within the intention.
- ◇ A family can book no more than four scheduled Masses per person in a calendar year and only two of those can be weekend Masses.
- ◇ Masses for 2025 are nearly booked. Only weekday Masses are left. The 2026 calendar will open in January of 2025.

Pie & Ice Cream! Civic Band concerts will be held on Wednesdays in Columbia Park beginning June 19th and running through July 31st. St. John's PCCW will again be selling pie and ice cream during the concerts, as a fundraiser. Ladies of the parish may receive a call asking if they'll provide a pie or ice cream. If you'd like to provide a pie, ice cream, or help with the sale, call Cheri Imhoff 507-993-8740.

Mission Co-Op Envelopes: For those receiving the monthly packets of tithing envelopes, you will have received the Mission Co-Op envelope in the June packet. Mission Co-Op envelopes can be found in the envelope holders in the entryways for anyone who does not receive the monthly packet. Fr. Senn from St. Joseph's in Stratford will be with us the weekend of July 27th - 28th sharing with us the needs of his mission. More information will be coming.

Sunday Mass & Healing Service - St. Matthew, Wausau, will celebrate Sunday Mass followed by communal and individual prayer for health and healing on Sunday, June 9th at 3:30pm. The sacrament of reconciliation will be available prior to Mass.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners: As we get to know our new bishop, the following is the description of Bishop Battersby's new Coat of Arms.

The great seal of the Diocese of La Crosse is on a field of silver. The three wavy bands at the bottom represent the three rivers flowing through the Diocese of La Crosse – the Mississippi, Wisconsin and Chippewa rivers. The cross of gold within the canoe symbolizes the travels of the early Jesuit missionaries through the Diocese and the faith they brought to the area. Below the left arm of the cross is a lacrosse racket, from the game played by Native Americans who first inhabited the territory. Below the right arm is a sheaf of wheat, indicating the predominantly rural nature of the Diocese. The wheat is also a symbol of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The remainder of the Diocesan side of the shield is occupied by three hills of green behind the cross, representing the bluffs and hills found in the Diocese.

For the personal coat of arms, His Excellency, Gerard W. Battersby, has adopted a design reflecting his personal heritage, spirituality and ministry. At the top of the shield is a Celtic processional cross meant to honor Bishop Battersby's Irish heritage. It is shaped like a traditional cross but with a ring, representing the sun, around the intersection of the stem and arms. The whole cross is decorated with ornate Gaelic patterns. Bishop Battersby's Coat of Arms includes the three Sacred Hearts. The hearts represent the Holy Family and symbolize the unending and boundless love for us.

The wounded heart signifies his devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It also pays tribute to Sacred Heart Major Seminary where he prepared for the priesthood and at which he served as vice-rector and dean of seminarian formation at the time he was called to the episcopacy. The second heart, the Immaculate Heart of Mary, signifies the trust and confidence that Bishop Battersby has in the Blessed Mother's intercession and protection. The sword symbolizes the sorrows of Mary, the flames represent her burning love for Jesus and us, her children and the roses represent her purity. Bishop Battersby's devotion to St. Joseph is represented in the third of the Sacred Hearts, the Chaste Heart of Joseph, inflamed with love and adorned with the white lily of purity, a symbol of his faith and steadiness.

Bishop Battersby's motto is found in the Gospel of St. John, Chapter 1, verse 18, which reads, "No one has ever seen God. The only Son, God who is at the Father's side has revealed him." Surrounding the shield is the pontifical hat called the "galero" with its six tassels, in three rows, on either side of the shield, all in green. These are the heraldic insignia of a prelate of the rank of bishop.

May St. John the Baptist pray for us, our new bishop and our parish.

Fr. Thelen

*Encounter Jesus
in the Eucharist.
He waits for you!*

The Holy Eucharist is Jesus Christ, really and truly present.

The Feast of Corpus Christi celebrates the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At the consecration of every Mass, the priest prays the words which Jesus Himself pronounced over bread and wine, "This is My Body," "This is My Blood." The bread is no longer bread, and the wine is no longer wine. We receive Jesus Himself as nourishment for our souls.

This week read these words of Jesus every day:

*"Whoever eats My Flesh and drinks My Blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day."
(John 6: 54)*

Let's pray this right now: Corpus Christi Sequence

*Lo! the angel's food is given
To the pilgrim who has striven;
see the children's bread from heaven,
which on dogs may not be spent.*

*Truth the ancient types fulfilling,
Isaac bound, a victim willing,
Paschal lamb, its lifeblood spilling,
manna to the fathers sent.*

*Very bread, good shepherd, tend us,
Jesu, of your love befriend us,
You refresh us, you defend us,
Your eternal goodness send us
In the land of life to see.*

*You who all things can and know,
Who on earth such food bestow,
Grant us with your saints, though lowest,
Where the heav'nly feast You show,
Fellow heirs and guests to be.
Amen. Alleluia.*

For I know well the plans I have in mind for you ... plans for your welfare and not for woe, so as to give you a future of hope. When you call me, and come and pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, I will let you find me...and I will change your lot. (Jeremiah 29:11-14)

7 Things Every High School Graduate Should Hear

1. Live with intention. College/careers will be full of new opportunities. Think carefully about your priorities for your new start.
2. Make the right friends. There will be plenty of new people! Concentrate on the ones who motivate you to be a better person.
3. It's a big world! Look for new perspectives, new opportunities, and new ideas that push you to grow.
4. Find a mentor. Building relationships with people who have "been there, done that" can be a great help.
5. Give yourself away. You may not need to volunteer anymore, but you'll be surprised what you learn, how you grow, and who you meet when you serve.
6. Before you go, learn how to do your laundry, address an envelope, schedule a doctor's appointment, use public transportation, and cook basic meals (ramen doesn't count!)
7. Remember that God is in control. And that's a good thing!

Graduates - Please stay in touch. It is important to keep our parish records up to date. We will ask that after the age of 22 you would register as an adult in our parish or the parish you would be attending at that time. Until then, we will keep your parish record under your family record.

THE ANSWER IS THE EUCHARIST.
THE EUCHARIST IS JESUS.

Final Call! Discover and embrace the gift of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist! Your whole life, you have been looking for the answer to the meaning of life, your purpose, your dreams, and your difficulties. We have been given the ANSWER to all of it. This Rally will give you the opportunity to connect more deeply with Jesus, who is the Answer, through Mass, Adoration, Confession, National Speakers, Powerful Music, and so much more!

There is still room for anyone wanting to join the group and if at all possible, we encourage you to come. Cost for the event is $20 and can be paid in advance in the parish office.

Immediate openings at Pope St. JP II Adoration Chapel,

Sundays at 8-9am or 10-11am

Come Follow Me!

When Peter encountered Jesus for the first time, he was busy doing his daily work, fishing. He was minding his own business when Jesus approached him and asked him to put his nets out into the deep water for a catch. Although hesitant, he did as Jesus asked him and caught an overabundance of fish! When they arrived back on shore, Jesus said to Peter, "Come, follow me..." and Peter did. In just the same way, the Lord continues to work in our world today, approaching us in our normal, daily lives and inviting us to consider following Him. Have you ever considered following the Lord as a priest, like Peter? Do you know of a young man who you think the Lord may be calling to be a priest? Perhaps this is the Lord's invitation to follow Him. To begin the conversation or to inquire about what it means to be a priest, please contact me: Fr. Nate Kuhn, Director of Vocational Recruitment for the Diocese of La Crosse, 3710 East Ave. S. PO Box 4004, La Crosse, WI 54602; or by phone at: 608.791.2667. God bless you!

Jesus Thirsts Coming to Rogers Cinema in Marshfield A new film focusing on the transformative power of the Eucharist will be showing at Rogers Cinema in Marshfield on June 4th, 5th, and 6th at 7:00pm each night (The showing on June 6th will have Spanish subtitles). Jesus Thirsts: The Miracle of the Eucharist will take viewers on a journey to rediscover the importance of the Eucharist through dialogue with notable Catholic figures including Father Donald Calloway, Scott Hahn, Jim Wahlberg, Curtis Martin, Chris Stefanick, Father Robert Spitzer, Bishop Andrew Cozzens, and Tim Gray, among others. Deacon Steve Greco, the executive producer of the film, explained that amid the ongoing Eucharistic Revival in the U.S., he felt it was "very critical that we have a movie focusing on the real presence of Jesus with top Catholic theologians and leaders." Greco added that they partnered with the Knights of Columbus to add a 13-minute adjunctive film, produced by the Knights of Columbus, titled Our Lady of Guadalupe: Woman of the Eucharist. The short film will air after Jesus Thirsts and explores the centrality of the Eucharist in that famous Marian apparition. He added, "We really believe that every priest, every deacon, every bishop, every Catholic needs to see this."

 Carlo Acutis was an English-born Italian Catholic website designer best known for documenting Eucharistic miracles and approved Marian apparitions. He catalogued them on a website he created before his death from leukemia. Carlo's exhibition presents a selection of the main Eucharistic Miracles which occurred over the centuries in various countries that are recognized by the Church. There are about 158 miracles collected. Through these panels you can "virtually visit" the places where the miracles happened.
