FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear St. John the Baptist Parish Family:

Each July 4th, we as Americans pause to celebrate and to thank God for the gift of our freedom. As we celebrate America's birthday we are mindful of many who made sacrifices so that we can continue to have the independence and freedom that we have. Lee Greenwood has a beautiful song which is very appropriate for this Fourth of July weekend. It is called God Bless the USA. The song begins as follows: "If tomorrow all the things were gone I worked for all my life. If I had to start again with just my children and my wife. I thank my lucky stars to be, living here today because the flag still stands for freedom and they can't take that away." Our flag represents freedom and unity. Because of the sacrifice of many this cannot be taken away unless we let it. As we gather with our families this Fourth of July weekend let us take time to remember what this day is truly all about. I would contend that every day we should reflect on the gift that our country is.

I am certainly proud to be an American. Why? Because every day I get to praise and worship my God freely and without coercion. Each day I get to pray and go to Mass without somebody stopping me from doing it. This is possible because our men and women in the Armed Forces fighting gave their blood for our freedom and independence. This is why I hope that we can rejoice as the first reading from the prophet Isaiah tells us to do this weekend. The reading says we should rejoice over Jerusalem, however, I would like to suggest that we also rejoice over America because of the God-given freedoms each of us enjoys every day. This should give us all cause to rejoice. Psalm 66 given to us for consideration this weekend tells us: "let all the earth cry out to God with joy." Do we cry out to God with joy, or do we just cry out to God with anger and negativity? God is calling everyone on earth to cry out to him with joy and Thanksgiving for all that we have received from our loving Lord. It is because of God's great love for us that we have this beautiful world to live in. It is also because of God's great love for us that we live in a beautiful country called the United States. To remain united, we need to stay united in the love of God that comes to us through Christ Jesus our Lord. In our present age God is calling us to go out to all the world and bring the good news of God's freedom and love to all his people. As Jesus sent his disciples out two by two in the gospel, he is sending us out today to proclaim that good news on this July 4th weekend 2025. May the Holy Spirit give us the courage and strength to always be people of joy and thanksgiving.

Since I've been talking about giving thanks for freedoms throughout this column I want to take a moment to thank all those who have so generously give the gift of their cooking talents to Fr. Thelen and myself. I certainly am very grateful for the hard work and care that has gone into the meals that I have enjoyed since my time here at St. John's. Please know that I continue to pray for all of you, the parishioners, of St. John the Baptist parish. Through the intercession of St. John the Baptist may we continue to go out to all the world and proclaim the good news of God's love for us all.

May God bless you, and may God bless the United States of America.

Associate Pastor St. John the Baptist Parish

Need Hope?

Take a Minute to Get to Know
"the God of all hope."

"May the God of all hope fill you with joy and peace in believing so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope" (Romans 15:13).

Hope is a theological virtue that we receive from God at Baptism, which disposes us to live in a relationship with our heavenly Father, Jesus – the Son of God – and the Holy Spirit.

(See Catechism, paragraphs 1812 1813)

We grow in this profound gift when we ask God to increase hope in us. The gift of hope enables us to trust in God's promises that are expressed throughout Sacred Scripture and fulfilled by Jesus, and to trust in His faithfulness and love.

Hello everyone and happy summer! My name is Paige Preston, and as some of you may remember from a few years ago when I spoke at Masses, I have been serving as a missionary with NET Ministries for the past two years. NET Ministries is a Catholic organization that sends out missionary teams across the United States to minister to middle and high school students nationally.

Throughout my time these past two years, I have been blessed with incredible opportunities to witness God work time and time again. I wanted to share some of the impacts that this beautiful ministry is having:

In California my first year, we hosted an overnight retreat for middle school students. On this retreat, one middle school girl and I started talking at meal time and it went well; I ended up sitting next to her and her friends for following meals, getting to chat with her and know a little bit of who she is. Little did I know that she was being greatly impacted by our seemingly light-hearted conversations. As our team was packing up to leave the retreat, she came and found me in the dark and began to share about the way that the retreat had changed her. She looked at me and cried as she opened her heart up to me about some struggles and serious challenges she was dealing with in her life. She told me that I changed her life; she now believed that she could one day be a missionary herself. I am so grateful for that encounter. She doesn't know it, but that interaction came at a time when I needed it a lot too, when I myself was questioning why I left home and left the normal path of life to serve as a missionary. God works in amazing ways.

Another glory story took place in Indiana, where my team and I were leading a retreat for a small Catholic middle school. On this retreat, my small group of girls were all pretty good friends, but I quickly learned that even though they knew each other well, they didn't talk about their faith with one another, despite attending Catholic school. During our time of prayer on that retreat, I was sitting in the back of the church with one of my teammates, offering to pray for students and their specific intentions that they might have. One of my small group girls came over to us and couldn't even verbalize her prayer requests because she was crying, she just wanted prayers. We prayed over her and she went back to her pew. Afterwards, when I was talking with my small group, she shared with the whole group how nice the prayer time was. She wasn't the only one; many of the girls in that group started sharing, asking questions and opening up to answering about their own beliefs. It was beautiful.

Over the course of the past two years, my teams have met thousands of youth across the country, leading hundreds of retreats. I could go on and on and on about all of the ways that God has shown up for these students and how they have left impacted. But not only did God work in the hearts of the youth we were ministering to, but He also worked in us missionaries. Travelling, living, and working with the same group of people for months has its share of trials, but through it, we were able to grow in love. One of the common questions I would hear someone ask the person they were sitting next to in the van was, "how has your prayer been?" I developed some of the most intentional relationships that I have ever experienced in my life, and that is because they are rooted in God.

I want to sincerely thank everyone who has supported me in this mission with NET Ministries, both spiritually and financially. I am extremely grateful that you helped provide me with the opportunity to serve in this way and allow the Lord to use me and shape me in such a unique way.

Looking forward, I am going to be continuing my time with NET as an organization, but this time I will be working as a supervisor. That means that I will be able to pastorally care for the missionaries and provide guidance as they go and care for our youth. I would love to invite you all to prayerfully consider supporting me in this mission. I am convinced that this mission requires a team. Please keep all of us in your prayers. If you are interested in supporting financially, please scan the QR code provided.

Again, thank you so much! I cannot express my gratitude enough.

God bless you all,
Paige Preston

Thank you!

Thank you members of St. John's for so readily helping us with materials, food and monetary gifts! We couldn't have done this week without your generous contributions!

Thank you to the teachers that led, the teenagers that assisted and to Fr. Mlsna and Deacon Austin who taught! This would not have happened without you!

Level 1 is offered on Tuesdays for children of 3-6 years of age.

Level 2 is offered on Mondays for children of 6-9 years of age.
